

Client Server Architecture Implementation and Network Troubleshooting

Four-day workshop was organized by School of Information Technology, MATS University Raipur (C.G.) on “Client Server Architecture Implementation and Network Troubleshooting” from 25.05.2018 to 29.05.2018. The conveners of the workshop were Mr. Jagendra nath discussed about client Server Technology, its Architecture and implementation along with the Networking and related Troubleshooting.

The Objective of the Seminar was to make students aware of different Architectures on which the application is developed and the network support an application looks forward to along with the Basic networking concepts, Network configuration and troubleshooting.

Ms. Rita Dewanjee
HOD
School of Information Technology
MATS University, Raipur
Head of Department
School of Information Technology
MATS University