

PRESS NOTE

“GUEST LECTURE ON CHEMISTRY OF HUMAN BRAIN AT MATS”

In order to spread awareness about the importance of Human Brain and its Chemistry, MATS School of Biological and Chemical Sciences organized “One Day Guest Lecture on Chemistry of Human Brains”. Eminent Personalities and Academicians Dr. Devendra Nath Sharma of Kalyan Post Graduate College, Bhilai gave Expert Lecture on Human Brains and its mechanism. Human Brains play a vital role and how the chemistry arises in behind, Dr. Sharma very smoothly elaborated to the students and faculty members of MATS School of Biological and Chemical Sciences. At the last Dr. Sharma shared the story of his success and experiences of 38 years in the different fields of chemistry and told the different scopes of chemistry.

During this One Day Guest Lecture, the participants were gained many things which were expressed in their face. More than 110 Students and Faculty Members were actively participated in this event. Dr. Amit Dutta, Head, MATS School of Biological and Chemical Sciences gave the welcome speech and introduce Dr. Devendra Nath Sharma by sharing the Details Biography. Hon’ble Chancellor Shri Gajraj Pagariya Sir gave special wishes to all the participants and assures that in future also this type of successful and fruitful Expert Lecture will organize. Hon’ble Vice Chancellor Prof. Byju John, Director General Priyesh Pagariya, Registrar Shri Gokulananda Panda of MATS University have congratulated to all the Participants for their active participation in this Lecture. All the Staff Members of MATS School of Biological and Chemical Sciences were also present in the programme. Mr. Vishwaprakash Roy & Mr. Prashant Mundeja successfully coordinated this whole programme.

