National Seminar, BIOCHEM- 2017

School of Biological and Chemical Sciences of MATS University, Raipur have organized one day national seminar on 4th March, 2017. The objective of this seminar was the discussion of intellectuals across the country on "Innovative Research in Biological and Chemical Sciences". The program was started with lamp lighting by chief guest Dr. Arvind Anil Boaz followed by Saraswati Vandana by the students. Dr. Boaz is the Principal Chief Conservator of Forest, State Forest Research Institute in Government of Chhattisgarh. After this all the scientist, researchers and students were benefitted by the experience & words of Dr. Boaz and Prof. (Dr.) Byju John, Vice Chancellor of the MATS University, Raipur. According to Dr. Boaz the innovations in research must be at grass root level considering the social welfare specially related to rural areas. In this seminar different scientists and speakers across the country like Dr. Arti Shanware, Prof. Santosh Singh Thakur, Dr. (Mrs.) Preeti Baxi delivered their research pertaining to innovations.

In the afternoon researchers and students of different institutes participated in research paper and poster presentation competition. Best oral and poster presentation were awarded amongst them. In the valedictory session the chief guest was Shri P.C. Pandey, Additional Principal Chief Conservator of Forest, in Government of Chhattisgarh. Vice Chancellor and Registrar of the University graced the occasion. In his valedictory speech Shri. Pandey stressed on the fact that the research and development shall help the humankind and at the same time the research shall be our nature and environment friendly, which are need of the hour.

During this program heads of the all the departments and faculties were also present. The program was concluded by the vote of thanks with the speech of Registrar Shri. Gokulananda Panda. He conveyed the compliment and blessings of Chancellor Shri. Gajraj Pagariya and Director General Shri. Priyesh Pagariya to the organizers and participants.
