

Women Empowerment- a session by Miss Damini Sen

On 3rd August 2015, Mats School of Business Studies, MATS University, Raipur organised a special session of Miss Damini Sen on the occasion of student orientation programme of new collage aspirant. Damini is student of BCA in Durga Mahavidlaya, Raipur and write on her name many achievements and set mile stone with her astonishing feat because she was born without arms but never let her disability become a hurdle in her path of success. The program initiated with the presidal address of Shri Gajraj Pagaria, Chancellor, MATS University, Raipur. Then Dr. Byju John Honorable VC MATS University, Raipur and Shri Gokul Nanda Panda, Registrar, MATS University, Raipur addressed the session. Chief Guest of programme was Miss Damini Sen and her graceful presence converts the event into grand. She inspired and motivated students with her life stories and hurdles came in her life and how her mother and sister help her to come out. Her inspirational words energised the students. Miss Damini presents a self painting with her signature to Department.