

Press Release

MATS School of Business Studies Organizes- Online Interactive Session

Today on 7th August 2020 School of Business Studies MATS University conducted one Interactive Session for the Students of MATS University and the Keynote Speaker for the Session was Director General of Police- Chattisgarh (I.P.S.) Shri D.M.Awasthi Sir, the Session was mainly conducted to motivate the Students for excelling higher in future and career guidance

The Session was very vibrant as the speaker discussed all the aspects of career counseling and motivated students to be self determined and work hard in life and also highlighted his experiences in Police Administration, he also highlighted the challenges of administration during this COVID-19 Pandemic and also he shared his experiences in various areas

The Program was addressed by the Head of Department Dr.Umesh Gupta and the Honorable Chancellor Shri Gajraj Pagariya, Honorable Pro.Vice Chancellor Dr.Deepika Dhand, Director General Shri Priyesh Pagariya, Honorable Registrar Shri Gokulananda Panda graced the event and expressed their warm regards to the department for organizing this Expert Talk Session

In this program all the Head of Department from various Schools of MATS University were present with all the Faculties as well large number of Students from various departments were present

At last one students Question Hour Session also organized and students asked various questions to the speaker related to their future career prospects which was patiently handled by the Key Note

